

HOSPITALITY EXPERIENCE

SQD Architects understands hotel and multi-family residential design and construction. Our principals have experience with numerous hospitality projects with a wide variety of scopes, ranging from basic due diligence and site planning to complete design, construction documents, and contract administration services. In addition to our experience with this project type, SQD Architects offers our clients the assurance that an experienced principal will be involved with every aspect of their project from largest to the smallest detail and will be the single point of contact for the life of the project.
